

Future Conference

„Europe for All?! – Rethinking (International) Volunteering“

11th – 12th March 2020 in the Jugendakademie
Walberberg/Germany

Registration

ORGANISATION:

FUNCTION:

NAME:

ADDRESS:

PHONE/FAX:

E-MAIL:

- I am staying overnight at the Jugendakademie Walberberg
- I would like to book a single room (at extra charge)
- I have the following information on catering (food allergies, food intolerances etc.):
- I need the following support (language support, physical support etc.):

- In the context of the „project fair“ I can present the following projects/activities in the field of international volunteering services/international youth mobility:

and require the following equipment:

Selection of workshops (please indicate tendencies):

Thursday morning:

- Structural barriers and strategy development – exchange of knowledge and implications for policy and developing policy papers
- EU Youth Dialogue – Enabling youth participation in political decision making processes
- Municipalities heading towards Europe – concepts & initiatives of strategic anchoring international youth work within local communities

Thursday afternoon:

- Peer Education Concepts & ideas for international networks – an Empowerment Workshop for young volunteers
- Barrier-free public relation work: how to reach everyone
- Building Up sustainable European networking projects

Photos which are taken during the event and on which I am depicted may be used and reused by the Jugendakademie Walberberg for publications in the context of public relations work (e.g. for reports and documentations, Facebook, etc.)

- Yes, I agree
- No, I disagree

Please send the completed binding registration form

via email to: dust@jugendakademie.de via fax: 02227 – 90902-10 or via post to: Jugendakademie Walberberg, Silke Dust, Wingert 6, 53332 Bornheim.

